Training School Plays Presented at the Normal School

EVANGELINE

The Sixth Grade of the Training School presented "Evangeline" adapted from Longfellow's poem, a three act play, in the Normal School Audi torium. The costumes were modeled after the Acadians of the periods of the story. The play was worked out as a project, including and correlating most of the subjects in the course of study for the sixth grade. It was gotten up by Misses Dorothy Goodman, Mary Henshaw, Phoebe Broaddus and Mildred Larkin, under the supervision of Miss Josephine Jerrell, critic teacher.

HIAWATHA

"Hiawatha" was also presented in three acts by the Third Grade of the Training School. The scenery was Indian, as were the costumes. Songs and dancing contributed interesting parts to the program, which brought out work in the various branches of study. "Hiawatha" was worked out and presented by the Third Grade under the direction of Miss Hatcher, third grade supervisor, and Misses Whiting, Washington, Miller, Kaplan, Proutt and Mrs. Thomas, a group of teaching seniors.

ROBIN HOOD

The play, "Robin Heod," given by the Fourth Grade of the Training School in the Normal School Audito rium was presented by Miss Franklin, critic teacher, Misses Katharine Ren- chitect, of Richmond, Va.

nolds, Lucille Wheeler, Mary Briscoe, Helen Favell, Mary Bland and Pauline Cosby, all of that grade. The costumes were bought with money made by selling hot chocolate and sandwiches at the training school. The play included singing and dancing. This was also a project covering different subjects.

ROBERT E. LEE

As I sit and scan the calendar of the first month of this New Year, 1923, my eyes seem naturally to rest upon this date-the 19th. And why? Because it is the birthday of our dead, yet honored hero, Robert E. Lee. A man whom the South not only believes to have been the greatest soldier and commander of his time, but the noblest character of his generation; one rarely equalled and possibly never excelled in the annals of the human history.

It was in the massive brick mansion, Stratford, in Westmoreland county, Va., on January 19, 1807, that our hero first saw the light of day. At the early age of eleven he lost his father, "Light Horse Harry" Lee of Revolutionary fame. So it was upon his devoted mother that the great responsibility of rearing and training her son fell.

At an early age young Lee selected as his profession a military life, and at eighteen he received an appointment as a cadet to the United States Military Academy at West Point. After four years of hard work and study, he bore off from there the high est honor that a cadet can securethe coveted cadet-adjutancy of the corns.

Lee was rapidly promoted, and when the Mexican war broke out in 1846, he went with Gen Scott as engineer. So valuable were his services there that Gen. Scott afterwards said of him: "My success in Mexico was largely due to the skill, valor and undaunted courage of Robert E. Lee, who is the greatest military genius in America, and the best soldier I ever saw in the field, and if the opportunity is offered, Lee will show himself the, foremost captain of the day."

Not many years after this, Lee had the opportunity of fulfilling this prophecy.

In the dark days of 1861, when he had to settle that momentous question he did not waver, but in obedience to the call of his State, he went to Richmond and took command of the Virginia forces. During the bloody days that followed from 1861-1865 we cannot say too much of him as a man, a soldier, a captain, as commander-in- National Headquarters for the Armesuccesses and his odds during his numerous campaigns-campaigns in which so great a reputation was achieved that they are studied by all military students throughout the world as are those of "Hannibal and Caesar, of Cromwell and Marlborough, of Napoleon and Wellington."

There are men today who wore the guey who rejoice and are proud to say, "I was a follower of Robert E. Lee. I was a soldier in the Army of Northern Virginia."

So we come today in loyal love to sanctify our memories, to purify our hopes, to make strong all good intent by communion with the spirit of him who, being dead, yet speaketh. Let us crown his tomb with the oak, the emblem of his strength, and with the laurel, the emblem of his glory. And as we gaze once more on him we loved and hailed as Chief, the tranquil face is clothed with heaven's light, and the mute lips seem eloquent with the message that in life he spoke-

"There is a true glory and a true honor; the glory of duty done, the honor of the integrity of principle."

Dr. Yonan Speaks

On Sunday, January 7th, Dr. Yonan a native of Syria, spoke to the Normal School in the interest of the Near East Fund. His appeal was particularly in behalf of the 125,000 little Armenian orphans; he pled for the adoption of ten of these bits of drifting, starving humanity by the student body.

Dr. Yonan has looked on the tragedy of the Armenians; more he has suffered with them in their flight before the Damascus blade. The verbal pictures he gave of the Easts' Yellow Terror-the. Turks-cannot be forgotten, for he left the heart pulsing the cry, "To the Rescue!"

Mrs. Charles Lake Bushnell has charge of the Orphan Adoption Campaign, the assigned time for raising funds being the month of January. In the Bullet's next issue will be given the results in figures.

Dr. Yonan tho' a native of Syria, is now an American citizen, and also a graduate of Louisville Seminary. He is sent out in the Relief Work by the chief of the Confederate armies, his nian Relief Fund, New York City.

HAPPENINGS ON THE HILL

On December 15, in Chapel, five members of the Senior Hygiene Class Grace Roberts. gave a most interesting demonstration of first aid. After this demonstration, a sale of Red Cross Stamps was conducted for the benefit of tubercular patients, the students buying about 3000 stamps.

We were most glad to have with us January 5th, Mr. Field, Rector of Trinity Episcopal church. Rev. Fields spoke to us on "New Year Resolutions and How to Keep Them." We enjoyed his talk and shall strive to profit by it.

Mr. Minor, an agent of the Western Union Telegraph Co., spoke to us at length upon the various kinds and methods of telegraphic messages. He distributed books to the student body containing helpful information concerning the telegram.

The Senior V's are finding a great deal of pleasure in school life this quarter. Since "Variety is the spice of life," this group of girls must be very well favored indeed, because they are teaching night school, working, and attending classes during this twelve weeks' session. The work in town is so novel and enjoyable, besides being most beneficial, that Tuesdays and Fridays have become most eagerly looked-for days "in town." The whole class appreciates the sincere cooperation of the business men of Fredericksburg. The following is a list of the offices in which members of the Senior V's are employed:

The School Movies

To the mad delight of the Normal girls, the first Friday after Christmas started our movie program for the two coming quarters. The picture entitled 'The Great Impersonation," is taken from Oppenheimer's book and proved to be one of powerful interest. The movie program includes a very fine run of pictures and guarantees to lovers of the screen regular Friday evening recreation.

New Students

Eight new students have been registered for the second quarter beginning January 3. The boarding school enrollment of the school is now 263; the total enrollment of the school, including boarding, day, night and training school students is 366.

Here's Hope for a Successful Season

Wednesday night Miss Hicks called the following girls in her room: Phoebe Broaddus, captain; Louise Belotte, Edith Wooten, forwards; Ida Robinson, Laura D. Jenkins, Majorie Raeford, Mary Henshaw, guards; Majorie Dishroon, Eleanor Prott, June Johnson, Catherine Adams and Indie Sinclair, centers.

As soon as they were all seated, Miss Hicks made this announcement: "I guess you know this is the Varsity squad."

Miss Hicks is having the team undergo some very hard practice, which will whip them in shape for the games which will soon follow.

The practice teams, out of which a number will be chosen for Varsity next year, are very faithful to their team. They are as follows: Page Harrison, captain; Lillian Smith, Mildred Freeman, Louise Peyton, Ruby Dillard, Christene Newbill, Elizabeth Gordon, Gussie Jenkins, Peamelia White, Bettie Wirt, Lucy Housten, Margaret Broaddus and Rebecca Levy.

Schedule of games for this season: Fredericksburg vs. Wilson Normal February 10, Fredericksburg.

Fredericksburg vs. Richmond City February 17, Fredericksburg.

Fredericksburg vs undecided, February 24

Fredericksburg vs. Richmond City March 5, Richmond,

Fredericksburgvs. Wilson March 10 Washington.

Fredericksburg vs. undecided March 16.

The next issue of The Bullet will have a completed schedule of the games. The two above dates are being discussed now.

All the Alumnae are cordially invited to attend the games.

Miss John Ruff was elected Vice-President of the Athletic Association, as Miss Ward is already carrying too many credits.

The cheer leaders are as follows: Misses Mary Carol Bland and Bettie Wirt. Miss Esther Warner is song leader and Miss Jesse James is pianist.

Miss Hicks is planning to have a game February 3rd. Varsity team vs. 1st Practice team. It will be the Varsity's first public game.

Gunston Hall has asked for a game. We do not know yet whether we will play this team or not.

Saturday, January 12, 1923

The Alumnae of the local chapter played their first game of the season. The opponents being the Spotsylvania Alumnae chapter. The work on both sides was good, but from lack of practice the local Alumnae chapter suffered defeat. The score was 13-20 in the Spotsylvania chapter's favor.

The referee was Miss Ann Morgan. Miss Grace Tanner tried to take Miss Morgan's place in acrobatic stunts of turning backward double somersaults on the floor.

Miss Rose Ulman played forward. She was a member of the Varsity team for the past two years.

$37 So was taken in. This is for the benefit of the new student alumnae building, which we hope will soon be

Open Air Theatre Completed

The open air theatre is now completed. It is beautiful beyond all expectations. The theatre will be dedicated May 11, at which time the Normal expects as its guests many hundreds of people, among them some distinguished personages. Governor E. Lee Trinkle will honor the school at this time with a visit and dedicate the theatre.

The Y. W. Bazaar

One of the most interesting features of the Xmas season was the Bazaar held Dec. 16, 1922. This was under the management of the "Y" girls and was for the benefit of the Y. W.

The patrons consisted mainly of the Normal School students, but outside visitors were made most welcome. The pretty and useful articles on sale helped solve the problem of Christmas giving for many girls. At the different booths, which had been prettily decorated, there were displayed Japanese articles of beautiful design—beads, purses and prints—fancy work and an abundance of candy that went so fast that it argued a sweet tooth crowd.

A tea room also offered delicious "eats," such as salads, sandwhiches, oysters and coffee.

Y. W. Christmas Stocking Service

At the annual Christmas Stocking Service which was held in the dining room on Sunday evening, December 17, the "substance" as well as the spirit of Christmas was there, for as the girls filed in the room the heap of stockings at the foot of the tree grew higher and higher; the collection hat grew heavier and heavier. The stockings, filled to the brim with nuts, candies, and toys along with the silver contribution were the gifts of the students and the faculty of the Normal School to the children at Doswell Field and Blue Ridge.

There had been previously 'planted' on the campus a large Christmas tree beautifully lighted by electricity, and had the weather permitted the giving and the Christmas singing would have been in the open.

Course of Study Committee Meets

The Course of Study Committee of of the Normal School Board met with the Course of Study Committee in President Chandler's office, January 16. Several important matters looking to the further development of the Normal were settled.

SUPPOSE

Suppose we think little about number one.

Suppose we help someone else to have fun,

Suppose we ne'er speak of the faults of a friend,

Suppose we are ready our own to amend,

Suppose we laugh with, and not at, other folk,

And never hurt anyone "just for a joke."

Suppose we hide trouble, and show only cheer—

'Tis likely we'll have a Happy New Year:

News of the Virginia Reel Club

The Virginia Reel Club has elected the following officers for the ensuing year:

Mary C. Bland, President. Betty Wirt, Vice-President. Elizabeth Spencer, Treasurer. Helen Outcalt, Secretary.

At our last meeting we decided to make our first dance a Benefit Dance, the proceeds of which will go to the Armenians. The date of this is to be January 19, 1923. The music will be furnished by Woodings orchestra.

Come on, girls, and lets make this dance a big success.
